AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendant alleges the following affirmative defenses:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim)

1. As a first, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges the Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against Defendant.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Good Faith)

2. As a second, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred because Defendant has acted in good faith and in arms-length transactions.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Reasonably Equivalent Value)

3. As a third, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred because reasonably equivalent value was provided in exchange for any transfers alleged in the Complaint.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Equitable Defenses)

4. As a fourth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred by the doctrines of laches, unclean hands, in pari delicto, acquiescence, and ratification.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Any Harm Proximately Caused by Others)

5. As a fifth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred because any losses, damages and/or injuries sustained by Plaintiff were proximately caused by the fault of persons or entities other than Defendant.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Adequate Legal Remedy)

6. As a sixth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the relief requested by Plaintiff is barred because Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Intervening/Superseding Actions)

7. As a seventh, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred to the extent that the damages or losses allegedly sustained by Plaintiff, if any, were the direct and proximate result of intervening and superseding actions on the part of other parties, and not Defendant, barring Plaintiff's recovery from Defendant.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Injury/No Damages Suffered)

8. As an eighth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that the Complaint and each and every cause of action therein is barred because neither Plaintiff nor the Receivership Entities sustained any damages or injury caused by Defendant.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Setoff/Reduction)

9. As a ninth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's damages, if any, are subject to setoff or reduction and should be reduced accordingly, and Defendant is a good-faith transferee or obligee and is entitled to a lien or a right to retain an interest in any assets transferred or a reduction in the amount of the liability on any judgment.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(No Capacity to Sue)

10. As a tenth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff lacks capacity to sue and/or does not have standing to raise the causes of action alleged in the Complaint.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Lack of Personal Jurisdiction)

11. As an eleventh, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's claims must be dismissed because Defendant did not have sufficient contacts with the State of North Carolina to establish personal jurisdiction over this Defendant, and personal jurisdiction is lacking.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Improper Venue)

12. As a twelfth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's claims must be dismissed because venue is improper in this District.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Transferee Protections)

13. As a thirteenth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that Plaintiff's claims are barred based on the defenses and protections of transferees and subsequent transferees pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §39-23.8.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Reservation of Right to Assert Additional Defenses)

14. As a fourteenth, separate and distinct affirmative defense, and solely by way of an alternative defense, not to be construed as an admission or waiver of any kind, Defendant alleges that at the time of the filing of this Answer, affirmative defenses may not have been alleged for reasons that insufficient facts and information were available after reasonable inquiry. Defendant therefore reserves the right to amend this answer to allege additional affirmative defenses based upon subsequent discovery of new or different facts or subsequent appreciation of currently known facts.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, Defendant prays for judgment as follows:

1. That Plaintiff take nothing by reason of his Complaint and that judgment be entered in favor of Defendant;
2. That Defendant be awarded costs of suit incurred in the defense of this action including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the extent allowed by law;
3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Defendant demands trial by jury in this action of all issues so triable.

This the 5th day of August, 2015.
